To Whom It May Concern:

I have had the pleasure of volunteering with and knowing Brejia Blocker for the past two years. During the time of our acquaintance, I have known Brejia in many capacities. She has volunteered her time as the Flag and Danceline advisor and choreographer at Jenkins High School where I have been the majorette instructor for eight years. Brejia chaperones and instructs a group of 24 high school girls during their practices, parades, and games. She is very dedicated to her role as both a leader and role model for these young ladies. In my observation of Brejia, she has developed a great relationship with the young ladies who seem to appreciate her and look up to her. In my years at Jenkins High School I have seen many volunteers who were unable to make the impact and difference that I have seen since Brejia has devoted her time and energy to these girls. I am very impressed with her level of maturity and her ability to not only present herself as a leader but make the girls feel comfortable and at ease following her direction and instruction. Additionally, I have had the opportunity to observe Brejia while she was a member of the Savannah State University Marching Band where I have been the majorette and feature twirler instructor for the past two years. As a member of the marching band, Brejia performed with the danceline and showed great skill, dedication and teamwork. Even when Brejia was injured and could not perform, she still came to practice, assisted the other members and attended every performance to support her fellow danceline members and the marching band.

Brejia has a great personality and is always willing to help or offer her assistance in any way she can. In the time that I have know her she has proven to be mature, selfless, conscientious, and humble. She possesses the qualities of a leader, but is also very capable of being a team player, which she has shown in so many ways through her volunteerism and participation in group activities. Brejia Blocker is an intelligent, capable, dedicated, and personable young woman. She is always quick on her feet, with sensible reactions in all the circumstances I've seen her in. I feel confident in saying that she is capable of handling any situation with thoughtfulness and maturity. For these reasons, I believe that Brejia would be an asset to any group, team or organization.
